

5 of the most used verbs

in English and how to conjugate them

Tues 19th April

5 of the most used verbs in English and how to conjugate them

Verbs in any language are the basic building blocks of a sentence and in English there are lots of verbs! So let's take a look at five of the most common verbs and how to conjugate them to different verb tenses!

Ask - Perguntar (regular)
Present simple	ask (I / you / we / they ask) asks (he / she / it asks)
Past simple	asked (I asked, you asked, he/she/it asked, we asked, they asked)
Present perfect simple	have asked (I / you / we / they have asked) has asked (he / she / it has asked)

Look - Olhar (regular)
Present simple	look (I / you / we / they look) looks (he / she / it looks)
Past simple	looked (I looked, you looked, he/she/it looked, we looked, they looked)
Present perfect simple	have looked (I / you / we / they have looked) has looked (he / she / it has looked)

Call - Ligar (regular)
Present simple	call (I / you / we / they call) calls (he / she / it calls)
Past simple	called (I called, you called, he/she/it called, we called, they called)
Present perfect simple	have called (I / you / we / they have called) has called (he / she / it has called)

Come - Vir (irregular)

Present simple	come (I / you / we / they come) comes (he / she / it comes)
Past simple	came (I came, you came, he/she/it came, we came, they came)
Present perfect simple	have come (I / you / we / they have come) has come (he/she/it has come)

Do - Fazer (irregular)

Present simple	do (I / you / we / they do) does (he/she/it does)
Past simple	did (I did, you did, he/she/it did, we did, they did)
Present perfect simple	have done (I / you / we/ they have done) has done (he/she/it has done)

Example:

Ask (Regular)	I ask my dad for help. Yesterday I asked my mom what her favorite color is. I have asked my teacher many questions.
Look Regular)	I always look for the sales. Last night, they looked at the website. We have looked for more information about our trip to Mexico.
Call (Regular)	I call my best friend for advice if I feel sad. Last week, you called my sister to see how she was. I have always called my grandmother "Nana".
Come (Irregular)	He comes to school on time every day. Last Saturday, we came home after the cinema. I have never come late to piano lessons.
Do (Irregular)	She does her homework on Mondays. Yesterday I did all my chores. You have done well in school this year.

Ready to practice your new verb conjugation skills? Put them to the test here:

Exercises:

- Yesterday she _____ her mom because it was Mother's Day.
- I have _____ in every shop, but I can't find the item I want.
- He always _____ home to see his family for Christmas.
- I have _____ every task on my to-do list.
- Yesterday they _____ their teacher the meaning of a word.
- Last week my friend _____ back from holiday.
- I _____ the best I could at the tournament last year, but I lost.

Check your answers below: called-looked-comes-did-asked-came-did.

Great job! And if your goal is to learn English, and specifically more verbs this year, be sure to check out more of our blog posts and our social media pages (Facebook, Instagram and Youtube) And of course, on our Open English platform you can practice using these verbs in conversation with our native English speaking teachers!

